As Executive Councilor for District One (98 Towns, Four Cities, the Five Northern Counties of NH; Carroll, Coos, Belknap, Grafton and Sullivan Counties (250,000 citizens) and starting my 32nd year of elected service on the Council as well as a Grafton County Commissioner representing 19 towns (30,000 citizens) in Northern Grafton County where I started serving my 21st year of elected service, I write to all of you asking that you NOT issue any permits for the Northern Pass Project.

2565 citizens recently attended 7 public hearings, where over 300 people testified in opposition of this project. 29 towns have voted to oppose this project. Over 3000 signed petitions opposing this project have been delivery to Governor Lynch and other officials. If your decision is based on citizen testimony your decision to deny this project should be very quick and simple and does NOT need any more study!
